MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff commenced this suit with the filing of a Civil Rights Complaint on September 24, 2013 in the Eighth Judicial District Court of Nevada. On November 12, 2013, Defendants filed a Petition for Removal. Dkt. #1. Pursuant to screening, the Court determined that Plaintiff stated viable claims for deliberate indifference to serious medical need in violation of the Eighth Amendment. Dkt. #6.

On June 5, 2014, the Court referred the case to the Inmate Early Mediation Conference (“EMC”) program. Dkt. #9. On August 8, 2014, the parties engaged in an EMC. Dkt. #12. On September 25, 2014, Defendants filed an Updated Report of the Office of the Attorney General informing the Court that the parties had not reached a settlement during the EMC. Dkt. #13.

On February 5, 2015, the Court issued its Scheduling Order. Dkt. #42. The Court's Scheduling Order set the deadline for motions for summary judgment for June 5, 2015. Dkt. #42 at 3.

On February 25, 2015, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Enlargement of Time to conduct discovery. Dkt. #48. On March 16, 2015, Defendants filed a non-opposition to Plaintiff's Motion for Enlargement of Time. Dkt. #51. On May 22, 2015, the Court granted Plaintiff's motion. Dkt. #77. The Court set the new deadline for motions for summary judgment for August 5, 2015. Dkt. #77.

On May 11, 2015, Defendants Cox and Byrne filed their Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint. Dkt. #65.

The Parties now stipulate and make a joint application to extend the time to file dispositive motions.

II. LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Court has broad discretion in supervising the pretrial phase of litigation, which includes establishing discovery deadlines. See Zivkovic v. S. Cal. Edison Co., 302 F.3d 1080,

1 1087 (9th Cir. 2002). LR 6-1 governs requests for extensions of time and it requires the
2 following: "every motion or stipulation to extend time shall inform the Court of any previous
3 extensions granted and state the reasons for the extension requested." LR 26-4, which 4 governs extensions of scheduled deadlines, further requires that motions or stipulations to 5 extend deadlines must be supported by a showing of "good cause" and requests to extend
6 deadlines that are filed less than twenty-one (21) days before the expiration of said deadlines
7 must be supported by a showing of excusable neglect.

8 III. REQUESTED EXTENSION AND GOOD CAUSE THEREFOR

9 A. Discovery Completed

10 Plaintiff has submitted two sets of Interrogatories and Requests for Admissions as well
11 as one set of Requests for Production of Documents. Defendants have responded to 12 Plaintiff's discovery requests.

13 B. Discovery remaining to be Completed

14 Discovery is currently closed. There is no discovery currently pending between the 15 parties. However, Plaintiff has a pending motion to compel discovery before the Court. Dkt.
16 #87.

17 C. Good Cause Explanation for the Request of an Extension

18 The parties request an extension of time to file their dispositive motions based on 19 recent medical tests performed on Plaintiff to monitor and evaluate his Hepatitis-C. The 20 parties are awaiting a review of Plaintiff's recent test results by medical staff at the Nevada
21 Department of Corrections to determine his possible qualification for a treatment program.
22 Based on the results of those tests, Plaintiff may be admitted to the treatment program that he
23 seeks through his Complaint, thus obviating the need for dispositive motions. The parties
24 expect the review of Plaintiff's medical records to take place very shortly. Based on the recent 25 medical tests performed on Plaintiff, and the pending review of Plaintiff's test results and 26 medical records, the parties assert that good cause exists to extend the deadline to file
27 dispositive motions. As such, the parties request an extension of thirty (30) days to file their 28

1 dispositive motions.

2 D. The Present Motion for Extension of Time was not Submitted within 21 Days
3 before the Expiration of the Discovery Deadline due to Excusable Neglect.

4 The parties were aware of the dispositive motion deadline in the present case.
5 However, Plaintiff's recent medical testing took place within the last few weeks and the parties
6 are awaiting an evaluation of the tests results to determine whether Plaintiff will qualify for a
7 treatment program. The parties assert that excusable neglect caused them to request an 8 extension of time outside the 21-day requirement of LR 26-4.

9 IV. CONCLUSION

10 Based on the foregoing, the parties jointly request an extension of time to file their 11 dispositive motions.
